THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

1. The military school at Liblice gives training for a military career to youths who are under age for military service. The school is located in a former factory. The students wear uniforms like those of the army, but without insignia of rank or service. The students number 460 to 470 and range between 14 and 17 years. The course lasts two years, during which time the students have no leaves and are not allowed to have visitors. Training is given only in the use of machine pistols and infantry rifles.
2. Among the instructors in the school are a few Korean youths who train the students in partisan warfare. Some of these Koreans are completely wild creatures who boast of their killings.
3. Only so-called "deserving" youths are sent to the school. Several times during the past year 1953 the students have participated in joint field exercises with Czechoslovakian troops from the military camp at Jellenitz. In these maneuvers the students represented the "enemy" force.
